

Melita O'Sullivan

Melita O'Sullivan is Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Star Knowledge Global Holdings and Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of Star Knowledge Technology Alliance Team, LLC, a provider of software, engineering and business consulting services to the global marketplace.

Melita is also Treasurer and CFO of The Knowledge Compass, Inc., a provider of management, business consulting services to clients in Fortune 500 companies and; Treasurer and CFO of LL Corpus Cogere, Inc. a company that designs and develops innovative new age physical therapy equipment and solutions supporting patient rehabilitation and wellness in medical facilities and in-home settings.

Melita has successfully demonstrated over the last 25+ years a skill in improving the operational and control environments of organizations. This is highlighted by a career working with Fortune 100 companies in the technology, public accounting and financial services industries.

Her valuable strength is applying best practices from dissimilar industries and geographies thereby helping drive innovative change to clients' business paradigms. Melita has led and worked on international projects in Latin America, Asia, Europe, South Pacific, and the Caribbean.

Previous positions have included: Senior Vice President of Citigroup, Senior Financial Analyst of Wang Laboratories, Inc., and Senior Accountant at The New York Times. These positions have included direct responsibilities for technology audit engagements of various business units, risk and control assessments, project management, information security, Continuity of Business, knowledge and content management, operational improvement and change management, accounting, forecasting, budgeting, and financial planning and analysis.

Melita earned her Bachelor of Science in Accounting at De La Salle University, and MBA in Information Systems at PACE University. She received her CPA Certification in New York in 1996. Melita is also a Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist as well as a Certified Fraud Examiner.